The Town of Gill's social media site(s) are designed to serve as a forum for interaction with residents of the community. Even so, the Town's Facebook page is moderated, and users should follow basic rules when using this page. For instance, we ask that you are respectful in your actions and comments.

Please do not post:

- Profanity, abusive language, or personal/character attacks
- Material that is unlawful, obscene, defamatory, threatening, harassing, abusive, slanderous, hateful or embarrassing to any other individual or entity (as determined by Town Administration)
- Advertisements or business solicitations
- Chain letters or "spam"

Furthermore, please respect the intellectual property of others, and do not post content that infringes upon the copyright or other legal ownership interest of another party.

The Town of Gill reserves the right to remove any posts that we deem inappropriate or offensive, or copyright infringing, including but not limited to posts containing any of the aforementioned content exclusions. We also reserve the right to terminate involvement by individuals who post such content. For your safety, never include personal identifying information, such as your home address, phone number, or email address, in a post. Your comments are visible to all visitors to this page.
